Market Commentary

Generali Fixed Income Short Duration recorded performance of +1.12% in May 2024. In May 2024, the 5-year government bond yield decreased from 7.241% to 7.007%, while the 10-year yield dropped from 7.348% to 7.037%. The FED continued its cautious stance in balancing inflation control policies and economic growth support. The FED rate remained in the target range of 5.25%–5.50% in May. With high global uncertainties, the stable U.S. Treasury yields were attractive to investors seeking safe-haven assets, making emerging market bonds less attractive in comparison. Regardless, the rupiah was stable (IDR/USD 16,255 in April vs. 16,262 in April), and the yields on Indonesian government bonds remained competitive, still offering attractive returns in a low-interest-rate global environment, reflecting the country's economic resilience and positive investor sentiment. Meanwhile, BI had decided to maintain its rates at 6.25% to preserve future stability amidst global uncertainty and maintain the low inflation target.
